

ASKS CARRANZA TO MIND WILSON

Henry Allen Tupper Tells Him He Must Be Good.

Rebel Already Recognized by "Unofficial" Envoy.

But It Looks as If Villa Is Slated as Dictator.

(BY HERBERT WHEELER—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

JUAREZ (Mex.) April 3.—With the ultimate intention of according the Constitutional full rights of belligerency, informal negotiations were opened today by a representative of the American administration with view of obtaining specific assurances from Gen. Carranza that certain policies already mapped out by President Wilson would be followed by the rebel leaders in the event the army now in the field succeeds in overthrowing the Huerta regime.

Denying himself to call Gen. Carranza and his advisers such much time into this city as he has been able to do, it is expected that the document will not be finished until tomorrow, when it will be handed to Dr. Henry Allen Tupper to transmit to Washington. Dr. Tupper was called into the conference at the request of Gen. Carranza and was empowered to act as intermediary in carrying on the negotiations.

Great secret was maintained regarding the contents of the Washington communication, but a member of Gen. Carranza's suite stated later that the message had been sent by a prominent Senator at the request of President Wilson with a view of opening the negotiations which were suddenly terminated when Gen. Carranza started across the mountains en route to this city. According to this authority the message contains four points, two of which relate to the protection of the lives and properties of foreigners. The other demands were of such a delicate nature that it would be useless to make them public at this time, he said.

The message also reviewed the situation taken by the United States in behalf of foreigners in Mexico and referred to the friendly attitude of the Washington authorities in the moral and material aid to the rebels regardless of the opposition and criticism of a large class of American people.

It was hinted that the wholesale execution at Juarez between November 15 and 30, as well as the subsequent killing of Benton and Bauch, showed the indignation of American generally and that now was an opportune time for Gen. Carranza to outline a platform with regard to the questions that were of most interest to the American authorities.

As soon as the document had been translated into Spanish, the Minister of Communications Bonillas, Minister of the Interior Subirana, Comptroller General Gamboa, and Samuel Benton, an attorney, were called in consultation and he it was intended to ask Dr. Tupper to act in the matter.

A supplementary communication also had been inspired by President Wilson and was intended to be sent to Gen. Carranza if the life of Gen. Carranza was spared. It is considered certain that this request will be granted, although there is little likelihood that the prisoner will be released.

Although Gen. Carranza refused to make public his plans for the future, there are reasons to believe that the Constitutionalists will attack Monterrey as soon as the Constitutionalists are out of the shock of battle. Army officials estimate that it will take six weeks to two months to capture the city and get ready for the struggle, although it is admitted that Villa may decide to move the issue in the shortest possible time.

While the victory at Torreon is hailed with much rejoicing, there is an undercurrent of anxiety among the friends of Gen. Carranza that Villa by reason of his victories soon will be regarded as a popular hero and that his control over the situation will increase as he advances toward the capital. At the same time, it appears to be no way of curbing his ambitions or of preventing him from becoming a dictator, in effect it is not in name.

VELASCO MAY JOIN MONTEREY TROOPS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

EL PASO (Tex.) April 3.—Federal sympathizers in this city tonight said they had information that Gen. Velasco who escaped from Torreon last night numbered 2500. As they estimated Velasco's force at 8000, this would indicate that in deserting Torreon and prisoners the Huerta forces lost 5500.

The Federalists believe that Velasco and the remainder of his army will attempt to join with the Monterrey garrison and endeavor to capture Gen. Pablo Gonzalez, the rebel leader operating in that section, is believed to have a following of 3000.

This is the first time open protest has been made against the present method of the working agreement for the Western Pennsylvania field.

cattle on the ranches of Chihuahua alone, and more than $3,000,000 in bullion, besides the State government revenues. Carranza has an arrangement with several large mining companies in the State to deposit bullion with his State Treasurer as security for paper currency issued. All of the bullion companies, smelter interests and industrial corporations in Northern Mexico buy their money direct from the State Treasurer at Chihuahua, paying the rate of three for one, or 33 1/3 cents on the gold dollar, for what they use. In this way they are receiving genuine currency and of avoiding counterfeits. It is only along the border that counterfeiting has become a popular form of finance.

"I have learned that the State Treasury at Chihuahua will soon operate its own mint to its full capacity, and has already issued a silver coin which commands a premium, because it is minted from pure bullion," Mr. Curtis added.

Within the next sixty days Northern Mexico will be flooded with silver coins, minted and issued by the Constitutional government.

PREDICTS FALL OF TAMPIOCO.

ADMIRAL FLETCHER BELIEVES IT WILL BE ABANDONED.

Although Consul Carothers Confirms Report of Flight of the Federal Administration at Tampico Refuses to Make Any Comment on the Situation.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Following closely upon official advice today from George C. Carothers, the American consular agent at Torreon, of the flight of the Federal troops from that city, came a prediction from Rear-Admiral Fletcher that the important gulf port of Tampico probably would be abandoned by the Federalists without a fight.

Administration officials made no comment on the report at Torreon and official sentiment is not likely to crystallize until more is known of the battle and its efforts by Mexico City and elsewhere.

Admiral Fletcher's report was received with keen interest. For many months the Consular authorities have been besieging Tampico to obtain possession of a deep-water port on the Gulf of Mexico.

In the beginning the capture of Tampico was deemed essential in order to secure easy entry for the Constitutional army. The proclamation of President Wilson permitting the exportation of arms to the Constitutionalists across the border into Mexico diminished the importance of the port in that respect, but recently the knowledge that the constitutional receipts at Tampico were heavy, led to a renewed interest in the strengthening of the attacking force to a point that now seems to make probable the capture of the town.

Admiral Fletcher reported that the Constitutionalists now have outposts within a few miles of Tampico and that the commanding officer at Laguna Puerto plans to attack the town as soon as 1000 troops arrive under the command of General Huerta. At Laguna Puerto there are 1000 mounted Constitutionalists according to the admiral, and the Constitutional line are said to extend east to the coast and west to the mouth of the Tamaulipas River. The admiral estimates the Federal garrison at Tampico at 1000 men, but he believes the city is made more desperate by the lack of water, the connections having been cut by the Constitutionalists.

Admiral Fletcher advised that the rebels already taking long and patient naval force to cope with the situation or with anything apt to arise.

TROOPS FROM TORREON FIGHTING AT SAN PEDRO.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

JUAREZ (Mex.) April 3.—After the hysterical outburst which greeted news of the fall of Torreon last night, this city was calm today. It was the calm and refreshing sleep after a fever of anxiety over the issue of the campaign. Gen. Villa, perhaps taking long deferred sleep himself, added nothing to his brief bulletin of last night except that he would report all available details later.

Greatest interest centers in definite information as to the number of Federal prisoners taken by the rebels. In the bulletin last night Villa said the Federal losses were 12,000 dead, wounded and prisoners, and it was assumed he meant that most of these were prisoners. The report indicated a rout of the Huertistas as complete as to be almost unbelievable, and details were eagerly awaited.

Gen. Carranza's early estimate of his own losses was 500 killed and 1500 wounded. The rebels pursuing force engaged today the rear guard of the fugitive Federalists at San Pedro, twenty miles east of Torreon, killing 100 and capturing 125, according to a report received from Gen. Villa.

Among the prizes of war taken in Torreon were four large guns, 1000 shrapnel and thousands of cartridges. The path of the escaping Federalists is marked with the abandoned arms and cartridge belts.

Gen. Carranza was very busy today, but in the afternoon took time to answer questions put to him by reporters.

CARRANZA ON TORREON.

Asked as to the significance of the capture of Torreon, he replied: "It is of the greatest importance, because it sets us free to concentrate the major portion of our forces around the more central cities of the republic. Huerta's army is now in the knowledge that he no longer has a northern army worthy the name."

"Of course, I cannot disclose our future military plans, as Huerta, although he has not proven himself a good soldier would surely take advantage of the information."

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—That the principle of the Monroe doctrine is as much alive now as it ever was, and that President Monroe's declaration is not an "obsolete shibboleth," was the trend of discussion to the annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, which is considering present international relations and obligations of the United States.

While speakers, with few exceptions, were in agreement upon the general principle of the doctrine, there were some variations as to its application. Rear-Admiral Colby M. Chester urged a concept of discussion to the annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, which is considering present international relations and obligations of the United States.

John Barrett, director-general of the Pan-American Union, advocated a "Pan-American policy," in which each one of the twenty American countries should have the same independence as the United States, so as to eliminate any sense of fear on the part of Central and South American states as to the United States.

RAISE BIG HOWL ON BANK CITIES.

Redistricting Is Demanded by Disappointed Centers.

Home States of Committee Are All Given Plums.

Missouri, Houston's Home, Gets Two Institutions.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, April 3.—There was every indication tonight that the announcement of the reserve districts and cities by the Reserve Bank Organization Committee had given the signal for a determined struggle on the part of several cities, which were disappointed to have been omitted from the committee's decision and bring about a redistricting of the country, or at least a change in the reserve cities named.

Under the law the decision of the organization committee is not subject to review except by the Federal Reserve Board. This board probably will not be named by President Wilson for several weeks, but it is believed that those disappointed with the committee's announcement will bend every effort toward paving the way for changes. It was pointed out tonight that both Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Comptroller of the Currency Williams are ex-officio members of the reserve board and hardly could be counted upon to reverse themselves. The President has given no indication as to who the other five members will be.

The committee's plan was criticized in Congress today, and there were reports that the House would pass several cities in the race for reserve banks and which failed to procure them. Three members of the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, two Republicans and a Democrat, attacked the plan. Senator Weeks of Massachusetts, who opposed the plan vigorously for many months, but who finally voted for it, pointed out that one bank was located in Georgia, one in Virginia, the home State of Williams, and two in Missouri, the home State of Secretary Houston, the chairman of the committee. He questioned the propriety of these selections.

Senator Burton of Ohio, who was included in Pittsburgh in the district of which Cleveland is the reserve center, and asserted that it would be impossible to make trade turn outward from Pittsburgh to that city.

Senator Hitchcock pointed to the fact that Omaha had been included in the Kansas City district instead of the Chicago district and said trade did not flow that way.

Senator Burton said that there was no justification for the charge that it was influenced by any party or interest. He said that the committee had been named by Baltimore and Washington if he had not been a member.

So far no definite plans for any fight against the committee have been heard here and there is practically no way for such a fight to be undertaken except through the reserve board. It was suggested tonight, however, that members of Congress might undertake to provide banks for their districts by having the number of authorized reserve cities increased.

As soon as the rumor reached Denver that the plan would be accepted, it was a possibility even if only eight were to be formed.

EVENTS BRIEFLY TOLD.

Hospital's Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Children's Hospital Society of Los Angeles will be held Monday, at 2 o'clock, at the Children's Hospital, 1100 Vermont street, Los Angeles, Cal. Flowers to meet.

The Pioneer Society of Los Angeles county will meet in Federation Hall, West seventh street, on Tuesday evening. There will be vocal and instrumental music, and an interpretation of the German compensation law, by A. W. Wern.

W.R.C. Election.

A meeting of Rubley D. Evans W.R.C. No. 129 will be held this afternoon at No. 1000 North Hill street. There will be an election and installation. Visiting members and comrades of the G.A.R. are invited. Following the meeting there will be a social gathering.

DOT

High mass celebrated yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's Church by the Rev. Father O'Reilly for the souls of the departed. There will be a procession of the G.A.R. and a social gathering.

Unidentified Man Killed.

An unidentified man of middle age was struck and killed at Middle road station early last evening by Pacific Electric car No. 516 of the Santa Ana line, while he was apparently crossing the tracks to board the car. The body was taken to Revere Bros. parlors. The car was in charge of Conductor R. P. and Motorman H. Johnson.

Graduated in Class of '14.

Mrs. Emily F. Fairfield, 32 years of age, died Thursday at the home of her son, Prof. F. W. Fairfield, No. 907 North Bonnie Bras street. She was a sister of former President Fairfield of Oberlin College, where she graduated in the class of 1884.

She leaves two sons, Prof. Fairfield of this city and C. H. Fairfield, who is now in Paris, France. Grand Officers Honored.

Southgate Court No. 11. Order of the Amaranth, entertained the grand officers of the State at a ball last evening at the Masonic Temple, previous to their departure for Santa Rosa to attend the grand court. Those honored were Mrs. Mary E. Cartwright, Miss Sarah Reese, Mrs. A. Foster McArthur, Mrs. Ione Ford, Mrs. Gertrude Workman, Mrs. Gertrude Wadsworth, Mrs. Grace Anderson, Mrs. Fredella Beck, and Mrs. Ernest Ford and Elmer Riggs.

To Torrance.

With the idea of thoroughly acquainting itself with manufacturing conditions near this city, the Industrial Committee of the Chamber of Commerce will visit Torrance, Cal., to make a close inspection of the development there. "In our work of encouraging factories to locate here," said Manager Kinney of the Industrial Bureau yesterday, "we will not confine our attention to Los Angeles alone, but will pursue the broader plan of assisting near-by communities, which are prepared to receive new industries."

Eleven Days Unconscious.

Mrs. S. A. Butler, wife of former Supervisor Butler, passed her eleventh day of unconsciousness yesterday. She suffers from acute kidney trouble. Dr. J. H. Moore, in charge of a corps of physicians and nurses in attendance, said yesterday that her heart action is normal, and she is able to take nourishment, and there is no immediate prospect of a change in her condition.

From Iowa Falls. A party of Iowa Falls (Iowa) people have arranged a reunion and picnic for today in Eagle Rock Park. A basket luncheon and reunion of former residents of Iowa Falls and those here for the winter has been arranged.

FLIES IN ADJECT FEAR.

Mother and Little Daughter Are Frightened from Their Home by a Burglar. Frightened by a burglar whom she encountered in her home in the middle of the night, Mrs. J. Shelby, a widow, living at No. 450 South Grand avenue, with her 7-year-old daughter, Lucy, ran from the house and both ended in the street, last night, clad only in their night dresses, for almost an hour before they told their story to passersby, who telephoned the police.

Mrs. Shelby had gone to a medicine chest in a room adjoining that in which she and the child sleep, to get a remedy for the little girl's toothache. When she turned, the burglar was behind her. He started toward her and she and the little girl fled in terror, leaving the burglar in possession of the premises. Nothing was reported missing from the house.

BODY IDENTIFIED.

SANTA MONICA, April 3.—The body found in Los Pulgoso Canyon was finally identified today as that of William, the demented brother of Fritz Wansner, who maintains a lunch wagon on Utah avenue. The brother positively identified the German gun as his and said that the clothing was like that worn by his brother, who disappeared from Santa Monica the last of January. As the body has been buried and as no property interests are involved, no further action will be taken.

Slugged.

WOMAN CASHIER THUG'S VICTIM.

ROBBED AND DEALT BLOW UPON BASE OF SKULL.

Lies Unconscious in Lot for an Hour, Then Walks to Her Home Where Medical Attention Is Secured—Accompanied Police on Search for Assailant.

Slugged in the head by a purse-snatcher on Tenth street near Grand avenue, early last evening, Miss Nellie Hartman, a pretty young woman of 25, cashier of the Alhambra Theater, lay in a semi-conscious condition in a vacant lot for an hour, according to the story she told the police.

Receiving no assistance from passers-by, she was at last able to walk around the corner to her home, No. 1654 South Grand avenue, where medical attention could be secured.

According to her story to the police, Miss Hartman left the theater last evening with $25 in her possession. $15 in gold tied in the corner of a handkerchief and $10 in currency in her handbag.

Some one snatched at the purse, and as she tried to resist, she was struck on the base of her skull. When she recovered she found the money had been torn from the handkerchief, and the currency taken from her purse, though small change in her handbag and no beads touched. The thief also took a small diamond brooch she was wearing.

She had not only a small laceration at the base of her skull, but a bruise and cut along the left jaw, which bled profusely.

The young woman was unable to give a description of her assailant, nor account for the fact that he had returned purse and torn handkerchief after taking her money.

Though sick and weak from her experience, she accompanied the police to several addresses in an attempt to verify suspicions she said she had. They were found to be without foundation. Her condition during the ride was such that the officers urged her to accompany them to the Los Angeles Hospital for an examination, fearing possible basal fracture of the skull. This she declined to do, preferring treatment by her private physician.

QUARTER SECTION INVOLVED.

Asserting That the Proper Amount of Work Was Not Done Contest Is Instituted.

Lydia Oxford, mother of Clark Oxford, real estate man, was plaintiff in a contest heard at the local land office yesterday, against the heirs of Laura E. Washburn, formerly Laura E. Oliver, who died November 11, 1911, and involving a quarter section of land in the vicinity of Brawley, in the Imperial Valley.

It is asserted that the proper amount of work in the way of reclamation and irrigation was not done by the defendants, but it appeared that at the time of the death of the mother, the children were too young to perform the obligations assumed by the dead woman, although testimony was given showing that the work had been done as far back as 1908, the matter having been obliterated by time.

Two Auto Accidents.

Six Persons Injured in Wrecks After Car Turned Turtle While on the Way to the Beach.

OCEAN PARK, April 3.—"Death Curve" Washington boulevard and Compton road claimed six more victims early this morning when two machines turned over at the dangerous point, upsetting their occupants and inflicting grave injury to at least one of the men. The more serious accident occurred shortly after 5 o'clock this morning when a large machine driven by A. B. Cone turned turtle on the sharp curve.

The sharp curve, which is a dangerous point at the King George Hotel, Ocean Park; R. P. Jennings of the Phoenix Realty Company, and Warren Vance of the Vance-Cannavan Company, dealers in motor cars, were the occupants. All were bruised and cut and it was a time it was feared that Jennings sustained fatal injuries.

Cone, though shaken up and badly bruised, was able to render assistance to the rest of the party, and when they arrived in this city emergency treatment was given at the Receiving Hospital.

The other automobile accident near the intersection of Compton road and Washington boulevard happened between 1 and 2 o'clock, when the machine driven by James Howard and in which Henry Lesmer was riding, skidded and turned over. Both men were shaken and bruised painfully. However, after being given medical attention at the Receiving Hospital they went to their apartments at No. 59 Rose avenue.

MENACING GAZE AFFECTS WOMAN

Star Witness in Murder Case Collapses on Street.

Under Spell of Accused Man for Two Hours.

Grown Details of Tragedy Unfolded in Court.

Two hours under the menacing gaze of Manuel Cabral, on trial in Judge Craig's court for the murder of Mrs. Harriet Vorddam, and a grilling cross-examination by Attorney Dehm for the accused, affected Mrs. Laura Reynolds, an intimate of the dead woman, and star witness for the prosecution, that she collapsed yesterday noon at the corner of Third and Spring streets. She was taken in a hysterical condition to the Receiving Hospital.

Despite the advice of husband, parents and friends, Mrs. Reynolds, who but a few weeks ago left the hospital after undergoing a severe operation, dominated by a sense of loyalty to her dead friend, insisted upon going on the witness stand yesterday morning.

Within a few minutes she says that her hands became numb and cold and damp with perspiration. As the case continued and she found the seemingly hypnotic gaze of Cabral always fixed upon her, this numbness gradually extended to her arms and over her shoulders, until she says she felt as if she was under a strange pressure.

Her recital of the events leading to the death of the woman and the strange and all-pervading influence that Cabral seemed able to exert over her so affected Mrs. Reynolds that as she was proceeding to luncheon, she became possessed of the idea that Cabral was about to seize her. She fainted. At the Receiving Hospital, Mrs. Reynolds protested against her enforced seclusion and insisted that she must go to court that afternoon.

COURT ADJOURNS

Her physical condition was not such as would allow this and, consequently, the case was continued until Monday morning.

Mrs. Reynolds, who was the only witness called by the prosecution, despite the constant interposition of objections by the defense, told of the relations that had existed between Cabral, whom she said she had met under the name of Wilson at the Windsor Hotel, and the dead woman. Under cross-examination, Dehm attempted to establish the point that Mrs. Reynolds had been introduced to Cabral by Mrs. Vorddam under the name of Cabral and not as Wilson. The witness said that, while they were at the Windsor, Mrs. Cabral was constantly hanging about the halls of the hotel, watching Mrs. Vorddam's door and speaking to her at every opportunity.

Mrs. Vorddam became frightened at the advances of the man, in whom she had previously been interested, and at her suggestion, she and Mrs. Reynolds moved to the Mission apartments, where they occupied the same apartment.

CABRAL CALLS. That same evening Cabral called upon them at the Mission Apartments and remained about an hour. Later, instead of leaving, he remained at the place and was assigned to a room just across the hall from that occupied by Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Vorddam.

Tuesday, the day of the death of Mrs. Vorddam, Mrs. Reynolds went out to dinner, leaving the defendant and Mrs. Vorddam together. She returned at a little after 8 o'clock, accompanied by a man named Daimler. At 9 o'clock she went to her room, leaving Mrs. Vorddam alone. The door locking behind her. She returned at midnight with Daimler and another man when she found her apartment locked. She tried to arouse the landlord to let her in, but was unable to do so. She was confident that Mrs. Vorddam was in the apartment, so she called her on the telephone from the room of another tenant, repeatedly, but could raise no one.

At this time she discovered that there was a large hole in the door of Cabral's apartment. She knocked, thinking that Cabral might know something of the whereabouts of Mrs. Vorddam. There was no answer, so after again trying to arouse the landlord, she spent the night at the Windsor.

She returned at 8 o'clock the next morning when her door was still locked, but that of Cabral's was slightly open. She knocked but there was no response, which she thought strange, as she could see that there was a form lying on the bed. A close scrutiny disclosed the body of Mrs. Vorddam lying on the right side of the bed, fully dressed as for the street with the exception of her hat. The bed had not been disturbed. Mrs. Reynolds telephoned the police and James McNamara, city police detective, arrived about an hour later. The doctor showed her the marks on the neck, which she had not noticed before, as the dead woman's waist had covered them.

Cross-examination of the witness had been under way but a few minutes when the noon recess was taken. Owing to the accident to Mrs. Reynolds and upon the motion of Chief Deputy District Attorney Ford, the case was continued until Monday morning.

BOTH WON AND LOST.

Shook Dice Successfully, But Couldn't So Easily Shake the Police—He's in Jail Now.

For fifteen days, Joe Brown, who also claims the name of Smith, will have time for penitence and penance. During those days he will regret the hasty tongue and the natural suspicion with which he is equipped. He is serving time in jail because he talked unpleasantly to Mrs. I. H. Frankowitz, No. 105 East First street. In a little stand there she vended cigars. He was fortunate, "twenty-six" was the game, and he could shake a multitude of sixes each time he fopped the dice.

His luck was so plentiful that the coupons for trade filled his pockets. Then he asked for a certain brand of cigars, much advertised. The cigar woman had none of the brand. She referred him to another stand she knew. He was fortunate, "twenty-six" was the game, and he could shake a multitude of sixes each time he fopped the dice.

PASTOR'S FLOCK STAND ACCUSED.

PROPERTY OWNER SAYS THEY ARE PLAIN INCENDIARIES.

Asserts that in Most Unchristian Manner They Set Fire to His Fence—Wants the City to Prosecute the Clergyman—Investigation Will Be Made.

Members of the Cumberland Church, Fifty-seventh and Hoover streets, are accused of having burned and destroyed a fence belonging to Robert Stoll. He alleges that the members of the Cumberland flock did so maliciously and with un-Christian purposes in their hearts. He asks to have them arrested. City Prosecutor McKeby will investigate the conditions.

For years Stoll has owned a strip of ground about ten feet wide, extending for nearly a block along Fifty-seventh street to Hoover street. He also owns a little to certain land which the city contends is in the road-bed of Hoover street.

Stoll was dickering with the McCarty Realty Company about the sale of his land, which adjoined that of the realty company, when the latter Cumberland Church. Since Cabral's negotiations with the trustees of the church to sell them the strip that was too narrow, even for an apartment-house.

The trustees turned down Stoll's offer. Stoll built the fence that the strip could safely support. It was six feet high, and made of bricks, stones and sticks. Not altogether sightly, it is alleged, but most durable.

Several nights ago the part of the fence that extended into Hoover avenue was burned. Stoll suspected certain persons, but the flames left no clue.

Thursday night the remainder of the fence was demolished. Stoll claims that the Rev. L. J. Williams, No. 5307 Hoover street, has guilty knowledge of the destruction, and asks the city to prosecute the pastor.

WOULD MATCH HER LOVER.

If He Was Bad She Would Be Bad Also, So That They Could Get Along Agreeably.

Cecilia Payne gave a lucid explanation yesterday of her descent from a school girl of 14 to a woman without reputation, her chronicles covering three months. She was arrested at the jail door yesterday while trying to interview her man of support, Ralph Martin, a young burglar and thief, who has admitted many crimes.

She disappeared from her parents' home, No. 784 Hillside place, three months ago, and has not been seen since. The police don't know where she is. She is placed in the juvenile detention-room and will be sent to the Juvenile Court.

Dinner for Four.

'THE TIMES' SCHOOL OF DOMESTIC SCIENCE.

ECONOMY is the watchword now all along the line from Dad's apron suit to Mother's Easter hat and, falling in with this popular idea Mrs. Haffner-Ginger will this afternoon show us how to cook a dinner for four persons that shall cost but 50 cents.

Think of that, Mrs. Housekeeper—you who have drawn fine lines on your brow, puckers around the corners of your mouth and gray hairs on your temples worrying about the high cost of living, after a dinner for a family of four for 50 cents, half a dollar—four bits.

How can it be done? Come along this afternoon at 2 o'clock and see how the accomplished Times cook does it.

Now, we all know that Mrs. Haffner-Ginger has been accused of extravagance, but this demonstration will be requested to complete the shed. The minimum rate of payment for the permit to use the Mormon Island channel wharf by the Pacific Coast Steamship Company is to be placed at $10,000 per year. The actual income, however, is based on wharf and handling charges, and it is estimated that the city will receive a revenue from this source of probably $30,000 a year.

The minimum rate set for the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company for the use of 1200 feet of this wharf is placed at $15,000, and the Harbor Commission anticipates an income for the city from these two concerns of approximately $75,000 per year.

NO EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS. These two concerns, however, have no exclusive rights to the use of this wharf, and other vessels can berth there when these is opportunity, thus increasing the city's revenues from this source.

Plans are being prepared for the erection of a 400-foot extension to this 1800-foot wharf, at the south-westerly end and at the north-easterly end and there is to be constructed a 1800-foot passenger shed, into which the cars of the Pacific Electric can run directly, to accommodate steamship passenger traffic. There will be comfortable waiting-room and other conveniences provided in this shed.

The big steamers Congress, President and Governor, freight and passenger vessels of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's line, will berth at the new quarters. This will mean the employment of a considerable army of stevedores, etc., at Wilmington.

C. H. Eubanks, president of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, has been working with the steamship company representatives for the past three months to bring about the use of the Wilmington wharf by that company. He was a visitor at the Harbor Commission yesterday, when the application was filed, and was highly pleased at the outcome.

President Woodman of the Harbor Commission was also much gratified over the filing of the application, and gave intimation that there are other arrangements in sight for the immediate future that will greatly add to the development of commerce at municipal wharves at the port of Los Angeles.

INCUBATOR BREEDS FIRE.

Young Rancher of San Jacinto Suffers Serious Burns in Attempting to Save Property.

Fire started by an incubator in his barn last night caused a money loss of $2500 to a ranchman, and serious burns for which he was treated at the Receiving Hospital here, after being brought 112 miles by automobile in four hours.

Though the flames spread very rapidly, waiting seven horses from the burning building. Returning to secure what movable property he could, he was burned on his arms, hands and neck.

He was brought to Los Angeles by E. W. Kinney of No. 623 South Spring street.

SAVED FROM SUICIDE.

Police Matron Struck When She Prevents Woman from Quaffing Vial of Chloral.

Carrie Christ, the ancient woman whose name has been linked so often with the life of a woman, it was said, another sensation yesterday. When she was interrupted in the quaffing of a vial of chloral, by Police Matron Boyle in the woman's ward at the Central Police Station she gave battle.

Old, both in the experience of the underworld and actual years, she is also active, marvelously so for a woman who has lived such a life, and who recently attempted to take her life, it is charged, by having shot herself through the breast. She was the landlady in the Chinese house of immorality at No. 720 1/2 North Main street, which was recently exterminated.

When Mrs. Boyle attempted to jerk away the bottle of chloral, Mrs. Christ hit her viciously and accurately. Mrs. Boyle rocked against the bars and held to the steel while she regained her vision.

The two women struggled for several minutes. The management, resulted in the triumph of the police matron, who smashed the chloral vial.

Mrs. Christ alleged that she brought the chloral to jail with her, pending her prosecution on the charge of having conducted a disorderly house. The police don't know the story and are investigating the conduct of her husband, Claire Goodrich, a young man.

CITY-PLANNING EXHIBIT.

Exhibition Will Be Shown in Brownson Building from the Eleventh to Twenty-first Inst.

Chairman Prichard of the Board of Supervisors and the Mayor will be asked to open the City-Planning Exhibit, which will be shown free in the Brownson building from the 11th to the 21st inst. This was decided yesterday at a meeting of representatives of various civic, architectural and engineering organizations at the Chamber of Commerce.

Over 100 panels will be exhibited, showing what other cities have done or are planning to do in the attempted solution of harbor, rapid-transit, street, railroad, housing and terminal problems. Speakers on several pertinent problems confronting this city will be secured. A. H. Koebig of the Architects' and Engineers' Association was named chairman of the General Arrangement Committee.

Chinese Smuggler Given Two Years in San Quentin After Pleading Guilty to Indictments.

Gung Sing, a Chinese youth, who boasted that he "would show up" the local immigration officials, was sentenced to two years in San Quentin yesterday by Judge Wellborn in the United States District Court. Sing is a San Francisco boy, and during his residence in Los Angeles has been busy smuggling opium and contrabands across the Mexican border line.

Free Illustrated Lecture on Imperial Valley in Imperial Valley Lecture Room, 609-611 South Spring St. (Ground Floor) Every Day at 2 and 7:30 P. M.

These lectures, beautifully illustrated by colored pictures of scenes and operations in the valley, are intensely interesting and highly instructive—delivered by a recognized authority on Imperial Valley.

Our lecturer tells the story of the development of this great valley lying at the very doors of Los Angeles—a thrilling tale of modern conquest, accomplishment and success—not a mere recital of cold facts. You owe it to yourself to know about this great national garden that supplies your table with the world's choicest grapefruit, melons, limes and early vegetables—the "new land of corn and cotton."

Special Low Rate Excursions to Imperial Valley, $12 Round Trip, Including Meals and Berth.

Excursion covers practically all points of interest in the valley, returning by way of the new townsite on the main line of the Southern Pacific—distributing center of the 47,000 acres of Nile-Land Farms. Niland is "the inevitable city of Imperial Valley" because it offers a rare combination of advantages that forebode a rapid, steady growth—

—It is the natural shipping point of the 100,000 acres adjoining it—

—It is an important railroad junction center——will be the commercial center of the great north end of the valley—with cotton gins, oil mills, fruit canneries, railroad shops, huge warehouses and packing-houses for the citrus industry.

—planned by expert engineers—an attractive place of residence—sub-tropical climate.

—backed by many of the richest and most influential men in the Southwest.

Our new $5000 lecture room is the largest of its kind in the West—over 600 seats.

early yesterday, went to his home and found his absent servant. He was amazed to learn that he had not seen her. There are signs of struggle about the house. An 11-year-old Chinese servant has been taken into custody in a puzzle. He will say nothing.
The officers have tried information from him but he has not said a word.

The police found Mrs. Millard's palm with several other articles

MARTINEZ (Cal.) April 3.—
The Superior Court went on an excursion today to Richmond and San Pablo Point to view the spot where the so-called dynamite boat came ashore on the night of December 27, and where Thomas J. Mooney, Joe Brown and H. G. Hanlon were arrested by the Richmond police. It is said to be a pleasant custom in the Contra Costa courts to give jurymen a better grasp of the case and at the same time give them a little outing by taking them to the scene of the alleged crime.

Judge, jury, attorneys and all the court officials, as well as the defendant, Mooney, went along on the trip.
The jury was given into the sworn charge of Sheriff E. R. Foster, who kept the men carefully guarded from contact with possible interlopers. The party went to Richmond on the 11 o'clock train and after lunch at a hotel was taken out to Point San Pablo on a special train on the Belmont line. A stop was made at the wharf, where the boat came ashore and the jurymen were taken to the various points mentioned by the witnesses, where the jurors tested the lines of sight to the end of the wharf.
At Point San Pablo a thorough inspection was made of the boat and the place where the dynamite was placed. The party then returned to Martinez, where court was regularly adjourned.

THE DAY'S PROGRESS.

In the brief time in which the trial was in progress in court this morning the defense attorneys had stated Judge Barber ruled out the declarations of the men when asked by the Richmond police to explain the presence of the infernal machine in their boat. According to Sheriff Foster, the prosecution contended, was a tacit admission that the men had the infernal machine in the boat and that it was not "planted." However, Judge Barber ruled out the testimony.

On account of a civil case set for tomorrow the trial goes over until Monday morning.

FEW TROOPERS AT GUARDS.

Usual Assignment of Cavalrymen to National Parks to Be Cut Down to Lowest Limit.

(By DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, April 3.—United States cavalrymen will not patrol national parks this summer, except in very small numbers. The military authorities have decided that park work does not add to the efficiency of troopers, and hereafter the Department of the Interior must, in a great degree, see that no depositions are committed to the public domain.

Heretofore one squadron of cavalry has patrolled the Yosemite Park, one troop of cavalry the Sequoia National Park, and a squadron and a machine-gun platoon of cavalry the Yellowstone National Park. This coming summer, however, the Department of the Interior will be reduced to the minimum.

No cavalrymen whatever will patrol the Sequoia Park, such patrol work being left to Interior Department rangers, and while no official orders have so far been issued for the Yellowstone Park, it is understood that the second squadron of the First Cavalry and its machine-gun detachment will be supplemented by a picked detachment of regulars.

Public Service: City Hall, Courts.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The City Council has filed a new petition, containing about 100 names, to rescind its action ordering the removal of the old sycamore on Avenue 44. The Board of Public Works is temporarily enjoined from having the tree cut down.

J. H. Maguire, city elevator inspector, yesterday notified the Board of Public Works that he considers the elevator equipment at Court Flight and Mt. Washington "positively a menace to life and limb."

Councilman Conwell has presented a plan to the Council to relieve congestion at Seventh street and Broadway. He would prohibit all automobiles from turning to Broadway at Seventh, and would send the Grand-avenue cars on trial to Eighth, Ninth or Tenth streets.

A divorce suit on trial in Judge Monroe's court has developed a fight for the custody of the baby daughter of the couple and brought to light twenty-one exhibits, letters, and photographs, two of the latter showing the wife in boy's clothes.

At the City Hall.
OLD SYCAMORE STILL STANDS.
BUT COUNCIL FILES MAMMOTH PETITION TO SAVE IT.

Board of Public Works and Legislative Body Each Denies that Ancient Landmark Must Go Down. Court Stays the Official Ax on Avenue Sixty-four.

Appeals to sentiment and historic association have been fruitless to turn the minds of members of the Board of Public Works and City Council from their intention to remove from Avenue Sixty-four the old sycamore—the pride of many residents of Garvanza and Highland Park, and a source of worry to others of the neighborhood and to the general auto-driving folk.

A mammoth petition, asking the Council to rescind its action in ordering the removal of the tree, has been filed by the City Council. The petition contained about 100 names among them many representative citizens. The petition is headed by J. D. Radford, member of the Municipal Grounds Commission.

Members of the Public Works Board and the City Council are firm in their stand that the tree constitutes a menace to public travel. It would have been removed some time ago, but those deeply interested in keeping it where it stands secured a temporary injunction from the court, restraining the city officials from carrying out their purpose.

In their petition the tree-lovers say: "This tree is one of the landmarks of the vicinity and is, in our estimation, an object of rare and artistic beauty. It is at least 100 years old and has been a silent witness to the greatest progress ever experienced by any community and is something which can never be replaced within the life of two generations."

CITY PLANNING.
COMMISSION IS PROPOSED.
The Public Welfare Committee of the City Council has set 12 o'clock of Monday, April 13, as the time for a public hearing on the proposal that a city planning commission be authorized, to work out various problems of terminal locations, etc. Representatives of various civic organizations have been invited to be present.

STATE AMENDMENT.
ATTORNEYS STILL WORKING.
City Attorney Stephens yesterday made a verbal report to the City Council regarding the progress of work on the proposed amendment to the State constitution providing for city and county consolidation. He stated that the city attorneys of Los Angeles, Oakland and San Francisco have given the work two days' time and that City Attorney Long of San Francisco desired to carry the materials accumulated North to work out a document after time to refer to various court decisions for the subject will be submitted to the law-making bodies of the three cities for their approval before the petitions are circulated.

Stephens was instructed to keep closely in touch with the progress of this work and to go to San Francisco, if necessary, to participate in further conferences. Members of the Council urged the great importance to Los Angeles of setting the proposed amendment on the next general election ballot.

FLIGHT ELEVATORS.
SAYS THEY'RE DANGEROUS.
J. H. Maguire, City Elevator Inspector, yesterday sent to the Board of Public Works a statement regarding the elevators at the three incline railways in this city. He states that he has inspected the elevators at Angels Flight, Court Flight and Washington Heights and finds the equipment at Angels Flight "O.K." but that the one at Court Flight "is positively a menace to life and limb." He also states that the Washington Heights cars are not properly equipped.

CONWELL'S PLAN.
TO RELIEVE CONGESTION.
Councilman Conwell, who has given much study to plans for relieving congestion in the business district, has presented to the City Council a plan whereby he believes that greatly improved conditions can be secured at Seventh street and Broadway, one of the most-congested sections of the city.

Conwell proposed that the Grand-avenue cars be sent south on Broadway to Eighth, Ninth or Tenth streets, instead of turning at Seventh street, and that automobiles be absolutely prohibited from turning into Broadway at Seventh street. By such regulations, says Conwell, the present congestion can be reduced at least 50 per cent.

Municipal Notes.
The Public Works Committee yesterday gave its approval to a proposed ordinance providing that street names shall be changed on only one day during the year. The plan provides a sort of general clearinghouse for change of street names, on one day, and prohibits changes at any other time of the year.

Introduction of the bond election ordinance was deferred yesterday because it was discovered that the County Supervisors had not established the new precincts by ordinance, and this will require that they be described in the ordinance for the election by metas and bounds, entailing considerable extra labor.

May H. Hoshfeld, by J. F. Hoshfeld, her agent, yesterday notified the City Council that on May 1 excavations will be started on the property directly south of the City Hall, and that these excavations will extend below the foundations of the city property; therefore, have city is notified to protect its property from damages.

The Wilmington Harbor Celebration Committee yesterday sent to the City Council an appeal for $500 to assist in defraying the expenses of the celebration, on the ground that the city is the beneficiary of the harbor. The Council is also requested to make provision for the transportation of 100 policemen to Wilmington for this affair.

At the Courthouse.
CHILD'S REPLY SHOCKS FATHER.

MOTHER INTERPRETS GOO-GOO AS SOMETHING BAD.

Too Startling to Get Into Papers but It Goes Into the Court Records—Wife's Pictures Showing Her Dressed in Boy's Clothes Exhibited in Court.

Fond parents interpret the "goo-goo" language of their babies into plain English, which always astonishes their friends, but the interpretation of Mrs. Clara Belle Grimes is alleged to have put on the words of her baby Dorothy, as related by her husband, George T. Grimes, in Judge Monroe's court yesterday, paralyzed the crowded courtroom.

Grimes said he asked Dorothy to kiss him, and she replied in Volapuk or Choctaw, or baby language just as easy for him to understand.

"What did she say?" Grimes asked his wife.

What Mrs. Grimes said Dorothy replied is now a part of the court record, and certainly was "not complimentary to Grimes, who was naturally indignant."

The case so far has brought forth twenty-one exhibits, consisting of letters and photographs tending to show Mrs. Grimes' alleged weakness. Two photographs show her in boy's clothes. She charges Grimes with cruelty, and exhibited a knife he wielded. He charges her with misconduct.

The big fight is over custody of Dorothy, a winsome mis of 3 years. Both want the baby, and Tuesday the court will determine who gets her.

CONTRACT HOLDS.

A contract made by former United States Senator Cole, involving the sale of his lots in the Ocean View End tract in this city, led to a suit between Cole and the Merchants' Trust Company, trustee, for the recovery of thirty unsold lots and judgment for $17,444. The suit was won by Senator Cole yesterday. Judge Finlayson gave judgment in his favor.

The testimony developed the fact that February 1, 1905, Senator Cole owned 130 lots in the Ocean View End tract, and made a contract with the Merchants' Trust Company, which gave him a declaration of trust. This provided that the balance of the lots sold were to be paid $250 a lot, and included a 10 per cent commission. Armitage, to pay the state assessments, liens, etc. Armitage was granted a six months' extension, which was incorporated in the trust deed.

The declaration of trust recited that it did not take the place of the contract, but was in aid of it. It further provided that Armitage should sell lots to net Senator Cole $27,440, the cost of the street work and the commission, the balance of the lots unsold were to be deemed to Armitage.

After the matter was put in escrow Armitage went to Canada, leaving Smith as agent. The agreement was that Senator Cole was to take possession unless the contract was carried out within the year. Judge Finlayson found that the defendants were not entitled to the thirty unsold lots, not having succeeded in selling enough to entitle them to the apportionment.

The court decreed that the trust company convey the remaining thirty lots to Senator Cole, subject to the payment by him of $250 for costs and attorney's fees. First was represented by Attorneys Haas, Cole and Brown. Armitage and Basil de Jersey were intervenors.

DISASTROUS SWAP.

SUIT QUICKLY FOLLOWS.
The ins and outs of a swap of acreage for an apartment house, with the plaintiff of the owner of the real estate that he had been stung and the assertions of the holders of the apartment house that the swap had been made in good faith, are being heard by Judge Sherk in the suit of William Rice against W. H. Martin, the James G. Martin Company, J. M. Ferguson and David C. Ferguson.

Rice, who is elderly, resides at Eagle Rock. He owned eighty acres in the Dominguez Colony tract. He met J. M. Ferguson and, according to Rice, Ferguson offered to trade the Engadine Apartments on Westlake avenue for the acreage.

Introduction of the bond election ordinance was deferred yesterday because it was discovered that the County Supervisors had not established the new precincts by ordinance, and this will require that they be described in the ordinance for the election by metas and bounds, entailing considerable extra labor.

May H. Hoshfeld, by J. F. Hoshfeld, her agent, yesterday notified the City Council that on May 1 excavations will be started on the property directly south of the City Hall, and that these excavations will extend below the foundations of the city property; therefore, have city is notified to protect its property from damages.

The Wilmington Harbor Celebration Committee yesterday sent to the City Council an appeal for $500 to assist in defraying the expenses of the celebration, on the ground that the city is the beneficiary of the harbor. The Council is also requested to make provision for the transportation of 100 policemen to Wilmington for this affair.

FIRST-HAND VIEW.

JURY INSPECTS ELEVATOR.
In order to get a first-hand view of the elevator which figured in the injuries received by Mrs. Ida M. Heeson December 13, 1912, the jury trying the suits brought by herself and her husband against the Union Oil Company, visited the building yesterday afternoon in charge of Bailiff Strohm.

James A. Heeson, the husband, asked $33,000 damages for loss of companionship of his wife, and suffering. Mrs. Heeson asked $33,115 damages for the injuries she alleged she received. She alleged negligence of the elevator operator. The company denied liability and alleged she contributed to her own negligence.

COURT PARAGRAPHS.

PROCEEDINGS IN BRIEF.
SWAP COURTROOMS. Judge Jackson and Judge Hewitt consumed the wrap of courtrooms, the former going to Department Sixteen and the latter to Department Nine. Except on Mondays when Judge Jackson will call his motion calendar, Judge Hewitt, who has been doing this work, will not preside at the County Commission held three times a week at the County Hospital.

STILL KEEPING COMING. H. C. Broom admitted having brought five divorce suits, in none of which he was successful. Yesterday, however, he was in court on a different mission. The charge was failing to provide for his girl, who is boarding with a woman. The latter testified that Broom abused her when he called to see his child. Furthermore, she insisted upon on him paying for the child's keep in advance, which Broom did not do. Judge Monroe ordered him to pay a month before the 15th of each month, and released him.

NAMES SON HEIR. Charles Baine Isaacson, who was named as the son of Baine Isaacson, was bequeathed her estate of $40,000 under the will filed for probate yesterday by his father, Baine Isaacson. The property is left in trust until Charles reaches the age of 25 years, when he receives the principal and the income of the trust. The estate represented stocks, bonds, promissory notes and real estate.

HOW IT HAPPENED. C. A. Truscott, who was named as the son of Baine Isaacson, was bequeathed her estate of $40,000 under the will filed for probate yesterday by his father, Baine Isaacson. The property is left in trust until Charles reaches the age of 25 years, when he receives the principal and the income of the trust. The estate represented stocks, bonds, promissory notes and real estate.

ILLEGAL ASSESSMENT.

The Los Angeles Superior Court yesterday filed suit against the county to recover $12,500.43 with interest at 7 per cent. from November 22, 1912, to date of payment. The complaint alleges that the County Assessor levied the taxes on undeveloped land, and that the assessor is liable for the same.

INCORPORATIONS. Southern California Auction and Commission Company, Incorporated by C. O'Neill, R. E. Lomax and E. Felix, capital stock $10,000, subscribed $5,000. Major Company, Incorporated by B. F. Duggan, E. W. Fisher, N. G. Douglas, R. W. Towne and Earl F. Low, capital stock $1,000,000, subscribed $1,000,000. Pacific Baking Company, Incorporated by William E. Long, Frank Pierce, Hugo R. A MATTER OF BARTER.

Woman Hares Sordid Details of Purchasing a Sweetheart for Coin of the Realm.
Lena Darling couldn't shake off her past, and she gives that as the reason for having stolen the jewelry valued at $25,000 from Mrs. Emma Martin of San Diego, for which she was arrested Tuesday. By the custom of the woman among whom she lived for so long, she attempted to buy a sweetheart, and stole the gems to do it.

For many years, Lena says she was one of the outcasts of San Francisco. She was during those days, she said, that she came to accept as a common thing that a sweetheart could be purchased.

In San Diego, she said, she found a young man who attracted her fancy. By the methods she had formerly employed in the Barbary Coast life, she presented her claims to him.

He, she said yesterday, was working at a small salary and could not afford to risk losing the slight income by devoting himself to her. So she tried to entice him to San Francisco, where she was in San Francisco in the old haunts. There she would have picked the pocket of her first love that had come along, to get the required amount. Instead, she said, she stole the jewels and bought her sweetheart.

VIOLATED TRAFFIC LAW.

William D. Dean, No. 1223 East Forty-fifth street, was arrested yesterday on a charge of having violated the traffic laws at Central and Washington streets. It is charged that he cut a sharp corner, and by so doing, struck a motorcycle ridden by Lewis McCall and William Julius. Rice against W. H. Martin, the James G. Martin Company, J. M. Ferguson and David C. Ferguson.

JUDGMENT AFFIRMED.

The District Court has affirmed the judgment of Judge Conley, of the Los Angeles Superior Court, in favor of the plaintiff in an action brought by Carl Hageman of Santa Clara, Cal., against Charles F. O'Brien and William Garrett of San Francisco, to collect a commission alleged to be due on the sale of lands in Mexico to various parties. The case was argued by attorneys for the plaintiff, Santa Clara and Santa Clara counties. All of the parties to the suit are real estate dealers.

FISHING LAW TEST.

A petition for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of Y. Mascolo was filed in the District Court of Appeals yesterday. Mascolo was charged with violating the law in fishing with a dragnet within three miles off the shore, at the long wharf, Santa Monica. The constitutionality of the act is attacked in the petition for the writ that is returnable Monday, April 13.

The Awakening.
TRANSPLANTING OF FAIRYLAND.

SCHOOL CHILDREN WILL ENACT DREAM STORIES TODAY.

Festival at Which Sixty Thousand of the Fairest of the Southland's Treasures Will Participate Will Be Staged in Elysian Park Starting This Morning.

The Hans Christian Andersen festival for the 60,000 elementary school children of this city will begin at Elysian Park this morning at 11 o'clock under the joint auspices of the Drama League, the Story Teller's League and the City Teachers' Association. The variety of participants are secure in the knowledge that everything possible has been done to make the programme interesting to the small guests and their older escorts.

From 11 to 12 o'clock in the picnic grounds of the park the little ones will listen to such stories as "Three Billy Goats Gruff," "Brer Bear and the Honey Orchard," "Why Brer Wolf Didn't Eat the Little Rabbit," "The House in the Woods," "Prince Harwede," bird and nature stories and many others.

After a basket lunch the children, led by Dorothy Maygrove, playing the flute and dancing the dance of the Great God Pan, will go to the natural amphitheatre west of the reservoir, where an elaborate programme will be presented by the children from the public schools and playgrounds of the city, with a tableau by the Danish Society under the direction of Mrs. Asmussen.

Music for the afternoon programme will be furnished by the Twenty-fourth-street school orchestra, augmented by that of the Ninth-street school. The combined orchestras will consist of sixty pieces. Two plays, "The Elf King," with a cast of sixty-two children from the Gates-street school, and "The Christening Gift," by thirty-five children from the Recreation Center and Downey playgrounds, will be presented during the afternoon, together with seven tableaux. The tableaux to be presented are: "What the Moon Saw," five children from the Thirty-sixth-street school; "The Riddle," Cheney, Jamieson, Wilcox, Cooley and Hummel, together with Mrs. Ella A. Peck, Mrs. Murray Russell, Mrs. J. H. Brady and fifteen others.

PLACED UNDER ARREST.
J. Milton, indicted by the Federal grand jury for sending an unmailed letter to Miss Catherine Amigo, No. 211 East Fourth street, was arrested yesterday and placed in the County Jail on a charge of sending a letter to a woman on Seventh street near Spring.

GUEST EVENING.

Guest evening of the Evening City Club will be held at Christopher's next Monday. A programme has been arranged. Original readings by James W. Foley and songs by Mrs. J. J. Abramson will be the features.

Rheumatic Throat Is Common Trouble

Should Be Treated in Blood To Prevent Recurrence.

There are successful gargles that stop soreness in the throat, but to prevent their return, the blood must be put in order. The best remedy is S. S. S., as it influences all the functions of the body, neutralizing the irritants or waste products that enter the system through the proper channels.

Rheumatic throat is a dangerous indication, as means that the blood is loaded with more uric acid than the kidneys can excrete, and thus lead to serious general disturbance.

The action of S. S. S. stimulates cellular activity, and thus the elimination of uric acid in local spots. It enables the arteries to supply quickly the new red blood to replace worn-out tissue.

For this reason uric acid that finds the throat as a way out is wonderfully relieved. S. S. S. is saturated and eliminated. It cures the blood, prevents chronic conditions, by enabling all the various organs of the body to secrete healthy mucus. Its influence is so general that it cures the movement of the bronchial tubes, whereby the business of voice with thick, grayish expectorations is overthrown. S. S. S. will dilute with water, means a blood bath, and is free of all minerals and compounds. It is free of all drugs, but does not accept anything else. There is danger in substitutes. S. S. S. is prepared only by the Dr. J. C. Williams Medical Dept. will give you free instructions in mail any subject of blood disorders. Write today.

THE CITY. The mysterious woman whose shadow has darkened the investigation of the Ethel poisoning mystery will be called before the grand jury. A girl whose testimony sent her to prison makes a statement in the shadow of death that San Diego officers convinced her to testify falsely.
